Numismatists of Wisconsin

May 19, 20, • Iola, Wisconsin

Chet

The past fifteen years of my life have been interesting and enjoyable ones. At the beginning of that time I was still deeply involved in day-to-day management of Krause Publications, my retirement from active management involvement with the company in 1991, and the pursuit of some collecting interests in fields not related to NOW. Today, I am grateful to those who have carried on.

In 1985 I was rapidly coming out of a near disaster for KP, a situation resulting from a banker in Milwaukee having set himself on a mission to prematurely collect our loan for his bank. While our cash flow was tight at the time, you can't get water from a dry well, fortunately for us we had recently become involved in the blossoming Baseball Card Hobby, which forced us to get an extra vehicle to carry money to the bank and we were able to pay him off. At the same time I was also busily trying to retire to get new blood into the company. We were partially successful but it wasn't until 1991 that Cliff Mishler took over, much to my relief. That really was the beginning of my retirement, but we have officially used the date of 1995 when the ESOP (Employee Stock Ownership Plan) gave me my last check.

I've continued to collect Wisconsin Currency along with other numismatic items. I also collect automobiles, trucks, farm tractors and gasoline engines, and military vehicles (WWII). I have built three buildings to house the latter collections and this year I'll be adding two more buildings. I've engaged two full-time people to help me, besides all the freebies I still get from KP.

NOW Annual Conventions

The evolution of the NOW convention to a one day show first took place in 1991 when the NOW convention was held in conjunction with the one day show of the Numismatic Research Society in Oshkosh. The following year at Milwaukee, the Now convention returned to a two day format. In 1993 at Madison, and all subsequent shows to date, the one day format has been in place. It is presumed that when the NOW convention returns to Milwaukee, it will revert to the two day show.

NOW 15 Year Briefs 1985-2000

1986-1988 ANA visited Milwaukee, NOW exhibitors took many category awards. NOW Past President Kurt Krueger was the General Chairman of the show.

NOW President Randy Miller was married to NOW member, Sue Ellen Wendt. A nice representation of NOW Governors and members attended their wedding and reception.

Members of the Numismatic Writer's Association filled NOW News with over a dozen interesting articles.

Two Wisconsinites were elected to the ANA Board of Governors, Nancy Wilson of Milwaukee, and ex-Iola-ite, Ed Rochette.

1988-1990 In February, NOW lost the Grand Old Man of Wisconsin Numismatics with the passing of Del Bertschy, at the age of 91.

Dave Harper of Iola ran for the 40th State Assembly District, (but lost) and Ken Bressett moved to Minnesota.

The 1913 nickel once owned by J.V. McDermott was donated to the ANA museum by Aubry and Adaline Bebee.

Peter Phillips became NOW News editor.

1991-1992 John and Nancy Wilson received the coveted Numismatic Ambassador Award. The Oshkosh Coin Club, which at one time had 55 members, disbanded, and the Milwaukee Numismatic Society hosted 100 Boy Scouts at it's yearly Merit Badge Clinic.

The first one-day convention of the Numismatists of Wisconsin was held in conjunction with the Oshkosh Based Research Society's one day show.

NOW News celebrated it's 30th birthday.

Harvey Binder, who along with Edward Kellom had founded the Beaver Dam Coin Club, passed away at age 66.

1992-1994 The La Crosse Coin Club 1-day show had to be canceled when city officials decreed coin sellers were "second hand dealers."

NOW was saddened when numismatic giant, Gale Highsmith, of Milwaukee passed away at age 82.

Ruth Ann Phillips of Madison replaced her husband Peter as NOW News Editor, as Peter's health took a turn for the worse.

An internal audit of club records showed that the average member of NOW had belonged to the organization for ten years or more.

1994-1996

The three-way hosting of the Central States show at the Mecca in Milwaukee, linked the South Shore Coin Club, Milwaukee Numismatic Society and the Numismatists of Wisconsin.

Past NOW President, long time officer, exhibitor and activist, Harold Helm, of Oshkosh passed away unexpectedly following minor surgery.

The Wisconsin Valley Coin Club of Wausau hosted the very first ever NOW show to be held in the fall rather than the spring.

Several Virgil and Daisy Jackson exhibits were donated to NOW and sold by silent auction at the Wausau show.

1996-1998

The NOW Constitution and By Laws were updated and amended, replacing parts of the original documents which had first been drafted in 1962.

A profusion of free "penny boards" were being used at coin shows to generate numismatic interest among youngsters. Free "pennies" were provided by the host clubs.

The new, more difficult to counterfeit fifty dollar bill was put into use following a successful change in the hundred dollar bill.

Virgil Jackson of Beaver Dam, perhaps the finest of Wisconsin numismatic exhibit makers, died at age 92.

1998-2000

NOW Past-President, Monte Sherwin, who assembled one of the finest collections of world crowns right here in Wisconsin passed away at the age of 91.

The NOW archives were cataloged, enveloped and put into order, being integrated with records from the Gordon Gill archives.

The new state quarters and the Sacagawea dollar has been a boom to the coin collecting hobby, generating a renewed interest in the hobby for young and old alike.

Long-time NOW Board Member and Historian, Dick Anderson, died January 2000.
